Avant Contract specializes in carpet design that stimulates the senses. And we've developed fresh ways to make it happen, resulting in carpet designs with more depth and greater nuance, and well thought out tile options to stimulate creativity in flooring design. "Perfect modulation" between our planks and tile allow for ease in creating unlimited flooring design options. We respect dedication to innovation wherever we find it. Our commitment to artisanship goes far beyond our products. Does innovative carpet design make the world a better place? More sustainable, yes. More interesting, definitely. As for more stimulating? Let your senses decide.
